

Tactical Encounters Presents

Active Shooter Instructor Course

Through media presentation, innovative tactics and instructional techniques, this class was designed to prepare officers to become trainers in rapid deployment intervention techniques. Officers will be given the core instruction on the background, mission of first responders, history of active shooter incidents, commonalities, lessons learned, team responsibilities, priorities during active shooter incidents and principles to use in order to make quick decisions under stress. Because this is a train-the-trainer course, officers will then be given the opportunity to demonstrate their newly acquired knowledge through teach-back exercises and practical scenarios.

In addition to the topics mentioned above, students will be exposed to:

- Lecture
- Demonstrations
- Isolation drills
- Modular & comprehensive exercises
- Practical scenarios using force-on-force simulators
- Teach-back exercises
- Scenario development

This Course has been attended and adopted by agencies throughout Oakland and Wayne Counties. Instructors have then gone back and taught over 1,000 officers on tactics and principles derived from this Course!
