

Alex Schulz

Alex is a Sergeant with 15 years of law enforcement experience. He is currently assigned to the Patrol Division as night shift supervisor.

Alex also served 4.5 years in the United States Air Force as a military policeman. He was deployed/stationed overseas for Operating Enduring Freedom after the 9-11 attacks.

Prior assignments/duties include: SWAT Operator on the Western Wayne Special Operation Team with over 10 years of SWAT experience. Alex was also a member of his department's Special Investigations Unit where he assisted in planning/executing over 350 raids/building entries. He is also a member of his department's training unit and is an instructor with the Wayne County Regional Police Academy where he teaches new recruits pistol, rifle, shotgun, and active shooter classes.

Alex holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice and is also a graduate of the Eastern University School of Police Staff and Command.

He holds instructor certificates in the following areas: Pistol, Rifle, Less-Lethal Munitions, and Diversionary Devices.