

Basic Precision Rifle

MCOLES Approved for 302 funds

The Precision Rifle Course is designed to develop officer's ability to deliver precision fire under difficult circumstances and varied environmental conditions.

This course will cover deadly force, rifle marksmanship, positional shooting, administrative policies, communications, selecting equipment, maintaining equipment, ballistics, use of data book, range estimation, low light shooting, observation techniques, search methods, camouflage, field craft, shooting through intermediate barriers, scouting and building hides. Upon successful completion of this course the officer will be competent on the precision rifle and will have the abilities needed to be utilized as a basic police precision rifle operator.

Date: April 8th-11th

Location: Van Buren Police Gun Range, Van Buren Twp., MI

Costs: $500.00

Times: 8:00-4:00 (Hours may be extended as necessary)

To register visit us at www.tacticalencounters.com